Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order to Show Cause re Dismissal

On September 30, 2024, the parties filed a Joint Notice of Settlement, advising that the parties had reached a settlement of all claims at issue in the case and advising that the parties anticipate filing a stipulation of dismissal within 90 days. Dkt. 19 (“Notice”).

Based on the Notice, on October 1, 2024, the Court vacated any current dates and deadlines in the action set to run within the next 90 days and ordered counsel for Plaintiff “to, within 90 days of the date of this Order, file either a (1) Stipulation of Dismissal or (2) a Joint Report regarding the status of the action.” Dkt. 20 (“Order”). More than 90 days have passed since the entry of the Order and no Stipulation of Dismissal or Joint Report has been filed.

Plaintiff is ordered to show cause, in writing, within 14 days from the date of this Order why this action should not be dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute and failure to comply with a Court order under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) and pursuant to the Notice. Plaintiff is advised that a failure to file a timely, compliant response to this Order may result in a dismissal of the action with prejudice. Plaintiff may comply with this Order by filing a document that complies with the Order within 14 days.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
